"PETITION TO RE-INSTATE ABANDONED APPLICATION"

In reply to the "Notice of Abandonment" dated 03/06/03, we respectfully request that the PTO re-instate this application as it went abandoned for applicant's failure to timely file a proper reply to the Office letter mailed on 19 June 2002.

52
If the partitions Officer will kindly note, we have been corresponding with various petition examiners who after their evaluation instructed us to file this partition accordingly for the following reasons.

The applicants did in fact reply in a timely manner to the Office letter mailed on 19 June 2002. We replied to the notice wherein it was stated that additional fee's for $126.00 were required because there are 3 extra independent claims. Thus, accordingly we sent a money order for $156.00 that was accidentally $30.00 too much. It appears that the M/O was never cashed so we herewith provide new funds for $126.00, as we were instructed to do by the partitions Officers. We further include herewith copies of the M/O, the express mail receipt, "Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment" and a copy of the post card sent therewith. Whereby, it can clearly be seen we responded in the proper manner and time frame.

Therefore, we respectfully request that this application be re-instated and examined, as everything should now be in order.

We thank you for your valuable time and we anxiously await your decision.

Most respectfully,

Cathy D. Santa Cruz

Gordon E. Churchward
